

COMMUNITY

Art

Join us for a deeper dive into Community Art. In this training we will explore how to use Community Art with groups and communities and the use of public space for exhibitions and public dialogues. This workshop will be experiential and include art making and group work that you can transfer into your own work and context. All materials will be provided.

Date: 10.-12. Juli 2023 (3 days)

Time: 10:00 - 18:00 Uhr

Place: 72762 Reutlingen, Franz.k, Unter den Linden 23

www.franzk.net

Cost: 100€ (early bird registration before 15 April 2023)
120€ (after the 15th)

Course Language: English (basic knowledge)

*We request that every participant acts with mindfulness and respect in the shared space as we create safety for people from all background

Register Here.

Shabrae Jackson, a trained expressive arts facilitator and practitioner works in diverse communities internationally & domestically. Shabrae has in-depth experience implementing grassroots community-led projects and lived in Mexico for over 15 years. She is founder of Collective Tapestry, a group working to create playgrounds for exploration, weaving practices for healing through the arts.

Elisabeth Yupanqui Werner is one of the founding members of adis e.V. She is a trained expressive arts in Transition facilitator and practitioner and works with different empowerment-groups and communities in Germany. She works as a supervisor and coach (DGSv) with diverse teams and grassroots organizations in transformational processes towards social justice.

HEIKO KALMBACH is a trained facilitator and practitioner of Expressive Arts in Transition with a professional background in theatre, filmmaking and video art. He has been teaching in his fields of practice since the late 90s and has been a studio tutor at the Architectural Association's Interprofessional Studio in London since 2008. He supports diverse projects as facilitator, mentor, consultant and creative director. Over 25 years of yoga and meditation practice inform his work.

adis e.V.

Antidiskriminierung · Empowerment · Praxisentwicklung